Article 1

Chung Yuan Christian University (hereinafter referred to as the University) has specially issued the "Plan to Expand the Supply of Master-level Industrial Research and Development Talents" in accordance with the "Guidelines for Reviewing the University's Industrial Master's Program" approved by the Executive Yuan on August 5, 2004. These Regulations are established in accordance with Article 24 of the University Act, Article 19 of the Enforcement Rules of the University Act, and related laws and regulations.

Article 2

Our school adheres to the principles of fairness, impartiality and openness in handling admissions matters and has established an Admissions Committee whose members are composed in accordance with the "Criteria for the Establishment of the Admissions Committee of Chung Yuan Christian University". Those with a vested interest should be recused.

Article 3

Our school's industrial master's program is jointly planned and established by the school based on the needs of the cooperating enterprises. Admission is handled by a separate entrance examination. The number of students in each class is not more than 30 in principle. It is handled by an additional method and is not subject to the total quantity control of the Ministry of Education. However, it must be approved by the Ministry of Education.

Article 4

Anyone who has obtained a bachelor's degree, or has equivalent academic qualifications, and meets other relevant requirements stipulated in the admission brochure, may register for the entrance examination and, upon acceptance, enroll in the master's degree program.

The military service status of men must meet the requirements specified in the admissions brochure.

Article 5

Enrollment is divided into two seasons, spring and autumn. In principle, the duration of study for students shall not exceed four semesters.

Students in this special class are not allowed to apply to retain their admission qualifications.

Article 6

The subjects of the entrance examination and the proportion of the oral examination shall be determined by each department and stated in the brochure. The scoring information shall be kept for one year, but if an appeal is filed in accordance with regulations, it shall be kept until the end of the appeal procedure or the end of the administrative relief procedure.

Article 7

The admissions brochure should include in detail the number of admissions, eligibility criteria, examination items, examination dates, registration procedures, scoring criteria, admission method, order of consideration for students with the same scores, score review, registration procedures, replacement regulations, admissions dispute resolution procedures, and other relevant matters. The announcement should be made 20 days before the registration or application is accepted.

The admission principles for this class are as follows:

1. The Admissions Committee shall determine the minimum admission standard before the announcement of the admission results. Candidates whose scores are above this standard and within the admission quota shall be listed as regular admitted students. The remaining non-regular admitted students may be listed as reserve admitted students. The admission list will be officially announced after confirmation by the Admissions Committee.
2. If the number of candidates who have achieved the minimum admission standard is less than the enrollment quota, the reasons may be submitted to the Admissions Committee for approval and the admission quota may not be exceeded, and the candidates may not be listed as reserve candidates.
3. If there are vacancies after the admitted students register, the number of vacancies may be filled by reserve students before the deadline specified in the school's admission brochure; the deadline for filling the vacancies shall not exceed the start date of classes specified in the school's calendar for the semester of the year of admission.

4. If two or more candidates have the same total score as the last candidate, the order of admission will be determined according to the method of handling the same score as specified in the brochure. If the scores are still the same, all of them will be admitted by adding quotas. Please follow the same procedure.

5. In principle, the number of employees from cooperative enterprises admitted to this class shall not exceed 40%.

Article 9

If there are any disputes during the admissions process, they will be handled in accordance with the "Chung Yuan Christian University Admissions Examination Dispute Resolution Procedures."

If additional admissions are required for this class, the Admissions Committee should hold a meeting to decide, and submit the meeting minutes together with relevant supporting documents to the Ministry of Education for record after the new students register for admission.

If additional admissions are required due to administrative errors within the school, an admissions review report must be attached and the application can only be processed after approval by the Ministry of Education.

Article 10

The rights and obligations between admitted students, cooperative enterprises and the school, as well as the rules for non-performance of contracts, should be clearly stated in the admission brochure.

Article 11

All revenues and expenditures under this Regulation shall be handled in accordance with relevant accounting regulations.

Article 12

After being approved by the Admissions Committee, these regulations shall be submitted to the Ministry of Education for approval before being promulgated and implemented. The same applies to amendments.
