Article 1

Chung Yuan Christian University (hereinafter referred to as the University) is in accordance with Article 24 of the University Act, Article 19 of the University Act Enforcement Rules, the Ministry of Education's "Guidelines for the Review of University Admissions Regulations" and the Ministry of Education's "University Admissions Program for Special Talents".

Establish these regulations.

Article 2

Our school has established an admissions committee in accordance with the "Criteria for the Establishment of Admissions Committees of Chung Yuan Christian University", drafted admissions guidelines, and handled admissions matters in accordance with the principles of fairness, justice, and openness.

The admissions brochure should list in detail the department, duration of study, number of places, eligibility criteria, examination items, examination dates, registration procedures, grading criteria, admission method, transfer principle, ranking of equal scores, registration procedures, replacement rules, and score review. , admission dispute resolution procedures and other relevant regulations should be announced at least twenty days before accepting applications.

Article 3

Anyone who is a national of Taiwan and has graduated from a public or registered private senior high school or equivalent school in Taiwan or abroad, or has an equivalent academic level as stipulated in Article 2 of the Ministry of Education's "Standards for Recognition of Equivalent Academic Qualifications for University Admission", and meets the requirements of the school's admissions brochure Those with special talents, potential, experience, achievements or different educational qualifications may register for this entrance examination.

Applicants with overseas academic qualifications must comply with the regulations of the University's Regulations on the Recognition of Foreign Academic Qualifications, the Hong Kong and Macao Academic Qualifications Examination and Recognition Regulations, the Mainland Academic Qualifications Recognition Regulations, or Article 9 of the University's Regulations on the Recognition of Equivalent Academic Qualifications for Admission.

Article 4

This admissions examination is conducted as a separate admissions program, and the admissions schedule is based on the university's special talent selection admissions program schedule for the current academic year.

The enrollment departments and quotas will be implemented after approval by the Ministry of Education and will be included in the school's total enrollment quota for the academic year. Admission quotas cannot be used interchangeably with Star recommendation and application admission quotas. Admission vacancies can be used to allocate admission quotas for the current academic year.

Article 5

The examination items may be conducted in the form of written test, interview, document review, practical or hands-on examination.

If an interview, practical or hands-on training is conducted, it should be recorded in audio, video or in detail in writing, and the written record should be completed before the Admissions Committee decides on the admission list. For those who receive exceptionally high or low scores, the reasons should be stated in the score sheet.

Article 6

The admission principles for this entrance examination are as follows:

1. Before the results are announced, the minimum admission standard will be determined. Candidates whose scores are above this standard and within the enrollment quota will be listed as regular admitted students, while the rest of the non-regular admitted students may be listed as reserve admitted students.
2. If there are two or more candidates who are the last to be admitted with the same total score and the total score of the reserve candidates is the same, the admission order will be determined according to the method of handling the same scores as stipulated in the brochure. If the scores are still the same, the admission order must be submitted again. The order of admission is determined by the Admissions Committee, and no additional admissions will be allowed for the same score.

3. If the number of candidates who have achieved the minimum admission standard is less than the enrollment quota, the school may submit the reasons to the school admissions committee for approval and the admission will be reduced to the required number, and the candidates may not be listed as reserve candidates.

4. If there are vacancies after the admitted students register, the number of vacancies can be filled by reserve students before the deadline specified in the school's admission brochure.

5. If admitted students are admitted to this school and other schools at the same time, they should choose one school to register and are not allowed to register twice. If admitted students register twice after the deadline for giving up admission qualifications, their admission qualifications for all schools and departments will be cancelled. .

6. If admitted students wish to give up their admission qualifications, they should do so within the time limit specified in the brochure. Those who do not give up their qualifications are not allowed to participate in the joint admission channels for the current academic year: Star Program recommendation, application for admission, assigned admission, and the Star Program Joint Enrollment Program for Science and Technology Schools. Recommended selection admission, joint admission for special talents of four-year colleges and technical colleges and two-year vocational schools, joint admission for four-year daytime colleges and technical colleges, recommended admission for excellent students of four-year technical and two-year vocational schools, and selection for excellent students Admission review, selection admission, and daytime department joint registration and distribution admission.

The admission list should be officially announced after confirmation by the school-level admissions committee.

Article 7

If the additional admissions are due to administrative negligence of the school, the school-level admissions committee should hold a meeting to decide, and the meeting minutes together with relevant supporting documents and admissions review reports should be submitted to the Ministry of Education for approval within one month after the facts are confirmed before the application can be processed.

Article 8

If candidates have doubts about their scores, they may apply for a score review within the time limit specified in the brochure. The score review is limited to recalculating the test paper scores and cumulative scores. Candidates are not allowed to apply for reading, photocopying, copying, photographing, re-marking, re-grading, Grading criteria, test answers, or information on the names of test setters, examiners, reviewers, and interviewers.

Candidates' scores may be reviewed only once.

Article 9

If a candidate believes that the admissions and examination affairs are illegal or inappropriate and have infringed upon his or her personal rights and interests, he or she may file a written appeal to the Admissions Committee of the University within seven days from the day after becoming aware of the measures in accordance with the University's "Admissions and Examination Dispute Resolution Procedures." Starting from the day after the appeal is accepted, the Admissions Committee shall make a formal reply to the candidate after making a resolution within one month. If necessary, a special task force shall be formed to conduct an impartial investigation and handle the case, and the appellant shall be informed of the administrative relief procedures.

Article 10

When handling examination affairs, the school shall be careful in setting questions, printing examination papers, making examination papers, marking examination papers, sealing examination papers, supervising examinations, calculating examination results, announcing examination results, and registering students. Blood relatives or in-laws should take the initiative to avoid registering for the exam.

Participants have the obligation to keep the trial work confidential.

Article 11

All examination and scoring data should be kept properly for one year. However, if an appeal is filed in accordance with the regulations, it shall be kept until the appeal procedure is completed or the administrative relief is terminated.

Article 12

When enrolling or registering, admitted students must submit certificates and supporting documents in accordance with the school's regulations.

If there is any cheating in the entrance examination or the academic and experience certificates submitted are forged, altered, forged, used by others, false or do not meet the application qualifications, if it is verified to be true, the admission qualification of those who have not been admitted will be cancelled, and those who have been admitted will be expelled. No academic certificates will be issued to students. If the violation is discovered after graduation, in addition to ordering the cancellation of their degree certificates, their graduation qualifications will be revoked by public announcement.

Article 13

All revenue and expenditure related to enrollment operations shall be handled in accordance with accounting regulations.

Article 14

Other matters not covered here shall be handled in accordance with relevant laws, regulations and admission brochures.

Article 15

This regulation shall be promulgated and implemented after being approved by the Admissions Committee and reported to the Ministry of Education for approval, and the same shall apply to any amendments.
