

Admissions Rules for the Aboriginal Program at Chung Yuan

Christian University

101.12.18 Approved by the 2nd Admissions Committee for the 101st Academic Year

102.03.12 101 Academic Year 3rd Admissions Committee Revision

102.06.03 101 Academic Year 5th Admissions Committee Revision

Approved by the Ministry of Education's letter No. 1020086159 on June 10, 2019

107.11.21 107 Academic Year 6th Admissions Committee Revision

Approved by the Ministry of Education's letter No. 1060182127 on December 28, 2016

Article 1

Chung Yuan Christian University (hereinafter referred to as the University) has formulated the Admissions Regulations for the Aboriginal Program of Chung Yuan Christian University (hereinafter referred to as the Regulations) in accordance with Article 24 of the University Act, Article 19 of the Regulations for the Implementation of the University Act, and the Guidelines for the Review of Admissions Regulations of Universities.

Article 2

In order to recruit students for the aboriginal class, our school has established an admissions committee in accordance with the guidelines for setting up the admissions committee of Chung Yuan Christian University, and handles admissions matters in a fair, just and open manner.

Article 3

The admissions brochure should detail the department, duration of study, number of places, eligibility criteria, examination items, examination dates, registration procedures, grading criteria, admission method, ranking of equal scores, registration procedures, replacement rules, score review, and admissions disputes. The processing procedures and other relevant regulations should be announced at least twenty days before the acceptance of applications.

Article 4

Anyone who has graduated from a public or registered private senior high school or above in Taiwan or abroad, or meets the equivalent academic qualifications stipulated in Article 2 of the Criteria for Recognition of Equivalent Academic Qualifications for University Admission, and has aboriginal status, may apply for the entrance examination for this special class and be admitted. Later he enrolled to study for a bachelor's degree.

The identification of indigenous peoples shall be handled in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Indigenous Peoples' Identity Act.

Applicants with overseas academic qualifications must comply with the regulations of the University's Regulations on the Recognition of Foreign Academic Credentials, the Regulations on the Examination and Recognition of Academic Credentials in Hong Kong and Macao, the Regulations on the Recognition of Academic Credentials in the Mainland, or Article 9 of the Standards for Recognition of Equivalent Academic Qualifications for Admission to Universities.

Article 5

The enrollment of this special class shall be implemented after approval by the Ministry of Education. If the enrollment quota is approved by the Ministry of Education, it shall not be included in the total enrollment of the school in the academic year, and shall be reported to the Ministry of Education for approval during the academic year total operation schedule.

Article 6

The admission examination items may be conducted in the form of written examination, interview, written review, practical or hands-on examination. If the interview, practical or hands-on approach is adopted, it should be recorded in audio, video or detailed text. The written record should be completed before the Admissions Committee decides on the admission list. For those with exceptionally high or low scores, the score sheet should be noted. State the reason.

Article 7

The admission principles for this special class are as follows:

1. The Admissions Committee shall determine the minimum admission standard before the announcement of the admission results. Candidates whose scores are above this standard and within the admission quota shall be listed as regular admitted students. The remaining non-regular admitted students may be listed as reserve admitted students.
2. If the number of candidates whose scores meet the minimum admission standard is less than the enrollment quota, the reasons may be submitted to the Admissions Committee for approval and the admission quota may not be exceeded, and the candidates may not be listed as reserve candidates.
3. If there are vacancies after the admitted students register, the number of vacancies may be filled by reserve students before the deadline specified in the school's admission brochure to the original approved enrollment quota; the deadline for filling the vacancies shall not exceed the start date of classes specified in the school's calendar for the semester of the year of admission.
4. If there are two or more candidates who are the last to be admitted with the same total score and the total score of the reserve candidates is the same, the order of admission will be determined according to the treatment method for the same score and the regulations for replacement stipulated in the brochure. If the scores are still the same, the first place will be given priority. All candidates will be admitted through the incremental method.

5. For additional admissions, the Admissions Committee shall hold a meeting to decide, and submit the meeting minutes together with relevant supporting documents in accordance with the following regulations:

(1) Applicants who are admitted as additional students with the same scores should report to the Ministry of Education within two weeks after the start date of classes in the school calendar for the semester of the year of admission.

(2) If the additional admissions are due to administrative negligence within the school, an admissions review report should be attached and the application can only be processed after being approved by the Ministry of Education within one month after the facts are confirmed. The admission list will be officially announced after confirmation by the Admissions Committee.

Article 8

This special class adopts the principle of individual enrollment in the second semester of each academic year, and is limited to once per academic year. The quota cannot be enrolled in batches.

Article 9

If candidates have doubts about their scores, they may apply for a score review within the time limit specified in the brochure. The score review is limited to recalculating the test paper scores and cumulative scores. Candidates are not allowed to apply for reading, photocopying, copying, photographing, re-marking, re-grading, Grading criteria, test answers, or information on the names of test setters, examiners, reviewers, and interviewers.

Candidates' scores may be reviewed only once.

Article 10

Candidates who take the examination for this special class and believe that the decision made by the Admissions Committee regarding them is inappropriate and has damaged their rights and interests may file a complaint with the Admissions Committee in writing within seven days of becoming aware of the decision in accordance with the school's admissions examination dispute resolution procedures. File a complaint. The Admissions Committee should give a formal reply to the candidate one month after the meeting resolution from the day after accepting the appeal case. If necessary, it should form a special task force to conduct an impartial investigation and handle the case, and inform the candidate of the administrative relief procedures.

Article 11

When handling examination affairs, the school shall be careful in setting questions, printing examination papers, making examination papers, marking examination papers, sealing examination papers, supervising examinations, calculating examination results, announcing examination results, and registering students. Blood relatives or in-laws should take the initiative to avoid registering for the exam.

Participants have the obligation to keep the trial work confidential.

Article 12

All examination and scoring data should be kept properly for one year. However, if an appeal is filed in accordance with the regulations, it should be kept until the end of the appeal procedure or the end of the administrative relief procedure.

Article 13

When enrolling or registering, admitted students must submit certificates and supporting documents in accordance with the school's regulations.

If there is any cheating in the entrance examination or the academic and experience certificates submitted are forged, altered, borrowed, used by others, false or do not meet the application qualifications, if it is verified to be true, the admission qualification of those who have not been admitted will be cancelled, and those who have been admitted will be expelled. No academic certificates will be issued to students. If the violation is discovered after graduation, in addition to cancelling the degree certificate, the graduation qualification will be revoked by public announcement.

Article 14

All revenue and expenditure related to enrollment operations shall be handled in accordance with accounting regulations.

Article 15

Other matters not covered here will be handled in accordance with the admission brochure and relevant laws and regulations.

Article 16

This regulation shall be adopted by the Admissions Committee and reported to the Ministry of Education for approval before being promulgated and implemented, and the same shall apply to amendments.