Regulations for Flexible Course-Selecting of Students with Excellent Athletic Performance

July/20th, 2022. Passed by the 2nd Academic Affairs Meeting, spring semester, Academic Year 2021-2022.
July/19th, 2023. Revised by the 2nd Academic Affairs Meeting, spring semester, Academic Year 2022-2023.

- Article 1 To assist students with excellent athletic performance to balance their academics, training, and contests, CYCU properly arranges courses and improves the level of competitive sports. The CYCU Regulations for Flexible Course-Selecting of Students with Excellent Athletic Performance (hereinafter referred to as “the Regulations”) are formulated according to Article 15 Paragraph 2 of CYCU Academic Policies.
- Article 2 The Regulations are applicable to contestants and coaches who are chosen to participate in training or selection of the Olympic Games, the Asian Games, and the Universiade, and trained by the National Sports Training Center (hereinafter referred to as “the NSTC”).
- Article 3 Students who are trained by the NSTC may apply to take special courses offered by the Intercollegiate Planning Meeting as their course and credits after being approved by course-offering units and their respective departments.
- Article 4 In order to co-arrange the special courses mentioned in the preceding article, the NSTC invites representatives from the contestants and coaches’ former school to compose the Intercollegiate Planning Meeting to assist in handling administrative affairs such as study credits, course instructor, and grade submission.
- Article 5 For students who are trained by the NSTC, the hours of participating in domestic and foreign trainings or contests may be counted, and waived the compulsory PE classes after the Physical Education Office affirms.
- Article 6 The Regulation shall be implemented upon passage at the Academic Affairs Meeting and submission to the President for promulgation. Any amendments shall be processed accordingly.
