Notice:

This application was issued by Chung Yuan Christian University (CYCU) Regulations on Immediate Admission to a Doctoral Program Article 6:

The immediate admitted doctoral student, with one of the following conditions, with the approval from the appropriate meeting from the department, institute, college, or degree program and the approval from the university President, may apply to be admitted to continue the same program at master's level or transferred to a master's program in a related department, institute, college, or degree program:

- I. Discontinuing the study for the doctoral program
- II. Fail to pass the qualification examination of the doctoral program
- III. Fail to pass the degree examination and does not meet the stipulation in Article 7
- IV. Graduate students pursuing a direct Ph.D. program who, due to special circumstances, terminate their Ph.D. studies or fail to pass the Ph.D. candidacy examination, and upon review and approval by the department, institute, or program committee, and subsequent confirmation by the president, may rejoin in the Master's program in the following semester.

The preceding student who is reviewed and approved by an appropriate meeting of the department, institute, college, or degree program (or related department, institute, college, or degree program) and completes the prescribed master courses with a thesis submitted and approved by the master's degree examination committee may be granted a master's degree. The time of study in the doctoral program is not counted in the maximum number of years of study for a master's degree.
